

Golden Arrow Leadership Training Course

It symbolizes an undeviating course. It indicates the path to follow. It's the arrow...for years the symbol of leadership. Come see why. Sign up for a weekend of instruction, activities, challenges, and fun to assist you, the Patrol Leader or Assistant Patrol Leader, to manage the running of your patrols. Start your year off with Golden Arrow Leadership Training!

Where: Ernest Poole Scout Camp, Wabamun Lake

Who: Patrol Leaders and Assistant Patrol Leaders only. Strictly limited to 24 participants.

Cost: $65 includes all camp fees, meals, resource binder and a Patrol Leader's Handbook

Why: The main aims of the course are:

- to help each participant understand leadership and their role within their troop
- to provide each participant with the skills necessary to help with the planning and running of effective and enjoyable Troop activities
- to enable Patrol leaders to manage, and be aware of the needs of, the Scouts in their patrol
- to share program ideas, improve instruction skills, learn to run a troop with a complete Patrol system, and give older scouts more to achieve

You will be responsible for arriving Friday night and departing Sunday afternoon. Full course and kit details will be issued to those who register.

Note: The participant's leaders are invited to a special session on the Sunday of the event.

More info: Scouter Garth      scoutleader101@chiefscout.info      Phone: 465-9646

2008 Camp Dates:

Due to heavy demand a second course has been added:
Dec. 5-7